Leo Oswald drove down to the county seat Tuesday.

All neighboring towns celebrated the Fourth in regular fashion.

John Fall, manager of the Three Rivers ranch, was in Carrizozo Tuesday.

Sam Cassidy, a carpenter from Capitan, visited Carrizozo Sunday last.

G. M. Hughes and Wallace Brockway drove over to Lincoln yesterday.

Mrs. John Lee returned Wednesday from a week's visit to White Oaks.

Frank Munday, a railroad employe from Ancho, was in town the first of the week.

District court opened at Lincoln Monday. A large of people from this went from here.

The Nogal Peak Gold Mining Co. is preparing to put a force of men to work on its properties.

Wayne Van Schoyck and Chas. Spence, sheep barons of Lincoln county, came over from White Oaks Tuesday.

Morgan O. Llewellyn and wife of Las Cruces were passengers on Monday's auto for Lincoln to attend court.

Mrs. A. E. Lesnet, of Roswell, spent the past week in Carrizozo, visiting her daughters, Mr. T. S. Anderson and Miss Georgia Lesnet.

The ice plant is again in operation, after a week's shut-down for repairs. A big eake of ice looks good these days.

Bennett Dingwall and wife were over from the Indian agency Saturday, celebrating the Fourth with homefolks.

Roy Gumm, formerly of White Oaks, but now postmaster at Salinas, Otero county, spent a couple of days in Carrizozo this week.

Miss Margaret Prude, of Tularosa, a neice of Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore, spent the Fourth in Carrizozo, returning home Monday.

James Lee, wife and children, of White Oaks, left last Friday night for Kirkland, Texas, in response to a telegram. Mrs. Lee's parents reside at Kirkland.

The county commissioners met in regular quarterly session at Lincoln Monday. The report of the proceedings will appear in our next issue.

R. Irminger and wife and Mrs. Boom and children came over from Capitan Saturday, and broke bread with the multitude at the barbecue that day.

The dance hall on the evening of the Fourth was crowded to the doors. The visitors were made doubly welcome, and all had a delightful time.

The celebration at the old Brewery site, on the Bonito above Fort Stanton, was highly enjoyed by the many that attended. The dinner was fine, everyone had an abundance to eat and still there was a surplus.

H. D. and Geo. R. Hyde were over from Capitan Saturday and helped swell the crowd at the barbecue. They returned to Capitan the following day.

Fred Ferguson went to work Monday morning in the painting department of the Southwestern. He will remain here for a few weeks, after which he expects to be transferred to Alamogordo.

Fred Crosby, who, in the years gone by, punched cows over the ground where Carrizozo stands, was in town yesterday. Fred now has a well-stocked ranch in the Three Rivers country.

Miss Bertha Mayer came down from White Oaks Wednesday and took passage on that evening's train for Cascade, Colo., where she goes as a delegate to the western conference of the Y. P. S. C. E.

John R. Patton is preparing to open a bakery. He expects to have his oven ready for business by the first of the week, and thereafter supply the public with the "staff of life. John is proud of his reputation as a baker.

J. A. Norman exhibited a lobo hide Wednesday, the result of his markmanship. He killed the wolf near the Double Diamond ranch. He shot and knocked another over, but while going after the second one the first one made his getaway.

Fred, the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Brockway, has been suffering the past week from an attack of appendicitis.

It is thought that an operation can be avoided, as the little sufferer is improving; yet the danger point has not been passed.

Jim Lee, of White Oaks, left for east Texas Saturday night with his wife and family, Mrs. Lee having received an urgent telegram from her mother requesting her presence.

Geo. L. Ulrick, vice president of the Exchange Bank, and P. M. Johnson, range foreman of the Carrizozo Cattle Ranch Co., left yesterday overland for the Palomas hot springs. They expect to be absent about three weeks.

T. W. Crow, who went to Carthage to play ball on the Fourth, returned on Tuesday. He pitched a ten-inning game for Carthage against San Marcial, for a purse of $150, and Carthage won. He was well treated by the coal diggers.

The residents of the Mesa spent a pleasant Fourth under the shade of the pines. Seven families, representing eighty people participated. A yearling was barbecued, ice cream, cold drinks and other good things were there in abundance, and an enjoyable day was spent.

A. C. Austin, an old friend of the News, was over yesterday from Angus. He met his son, who arrived on the Limited, and will visit with his parents for two or three weeks. Mr. Austin lost nearly all his fruit by the late frosts, but hopes to recoup that loss from garden and field.
